CSE Advanced Practitioner (Level 4)

Advanced CSE training for practitioners follows on from the Introductory CSE training.
Professionals are provided with an opportunity to explore CSE in more depth by participating in training that draws on recent evidence-based research, relevant to all those working in the field of CSE. One of the aims of the course is to not only enhance practitioners knowledge of CSE but also the training will demonstrates how research can be practically applied. As a result, practitioners are enabled to reflect on their own practice and further develop their understanding of CSE and sexually exploited young people.

Eligibility criteria:
You will need to have completed either CSE for Managers or Practitioners or Level 3 CSE related before you apply.

'Friend or Foe?' (Level 3)

A new resource and training package designed to equip staff to deliver the training to colleagues and young people and help prevent CSE. 'Friend or Foe?' is based on many years of experience of CSE case work from one of the oldest dedicated teams in the country. In addition, every resource has been 'Youth Proofed' by the Sheffield CSE Young Advisory Group.
Minimum criteria—to have attended another CSE course

CSE for Managers (Level 4)

Priority will be given to those in a team manager / advanced practitioner role and those working in a specialist CSE role. To enable managers to assess and improve their organisations' contribution to tackling CSE.

Monthly Bite Size-Awareness raising of CSE (Level 1)

The Alexi Project in Sheffield will deliver training to professionals across Kirklees who work with young people who may be at risk of CSE, including via social media and the internet. They are working in partnership with Kirklees CSE services to provide relevant information to this specific area.

E-Learning - Child Sexual Exploitation (Level 1)

this awareness level programme will help you to:
• Understand the nature and scope of CSE • Recognise its impact on children, young people and families
• Engage more effectively with vulnerable children and young people • Know what to do if you suspect a child is being groomed or sexually exploited • Improve your response to CSE • Help you work better in partnership with other agencies

Child Sexual Exploitation for Practitioners (Level 3)

To increase practitioners confidence in engaging and working with young people affected by Child Sexual Exploitation.
By the end of the course participants will be able to:
• Identify the potential barriers to engaging with young people affected by CSE • Use different methods and tools to engage with young people • Summarise how trauma and brain development can impact on a young persons behaviour and affect their coping mechanisms
• Explain the Kirklees referral processes for CSE and the services that are available at different thresholds
• Consider the additional issues faced by boys, young people from a BME community or those with a disability
