

Do you really know what your children are viewing online?

- Beware of illegal, inaccurate, hateful, rude, violent and other extreme content online.
- Make sure you use reputable sites when you look up something or take part online and check what you find.
- Create different user accounts for each member of your family and set up parental controls so they can view age appropriate content.

Staysafeonline