Exploring the safeguarding culture within faith-based organisations

Agency: SCIE (Social Care Institute for Excellence)

Time: 10:00 – 11:30

Platform: Webinar

Details:

Culture is one of the key aspects of safeguarding that must be right, for our efforts to work well in protecting children and adults from harm. This webinar will explore the principles of what a good safeguarding culture looks like and prompt reflection on how well this works within your faith-based organisation. At the end of the session, there will be an opportunity to have your questions answered. The session is run by Simon Bayliss, Senior Practice Development Manager at SCIE.

The webinar covers the following aspects:

- the rationale for safeguarding and why it is everybody's business
- what is meant by a safeguarding culture and what we've learned about its importance
- how does a good culture start, and what is the journey to achieving it
- the importance of being outward-facing
- a high vs. a low-reporting culture
- how we better understand and monitor the culture in our organisation.

KSCP Training Survey 2021

Agency: Kirklees Safeguarding Children Partnership

Details: We are currently reviewing our training offer and want to start this by looking at what you think. As you may know, we have only delivered online training for the last year. It would be helpful to gather the thoughts and opinions of those who have accessed our training in the last 12 months.

We would like as many people as possible to complete this survey and it should take no longer than a few minutes to complete.

The results of this survey will be used to inform our training offer going forward. Thank you.
